

Course title	International Logistics and Supply Chain Management	Instructor	Determined later
		Instructor's email address
Semester	1 <input type="checkbox"/> 2 <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ECTS credits	5/3
Academic year	2019/2020	Contact hours	15 <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> 30 <input type="checkbox"/>
Level	1-Bachelor <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> 2 - Master <input type="checkbox"/>	Language of instruction	English / German

Learning outcomes and competences

At the end of the course the learner is expected to be able to:

- effectively discuss the nature of international logistics and SCM,
- appreciate the key challenges and risks involved in the international logistics and SCM,
- discuss the nature and role of the key parties related to international logistics and SCM,
- demonstrate a critical understanding of the various international logistics policy and SCM techniques available,
- suggest an appropriate international logistics development policy and SCM techniques in the Europe contexts,
- critically understand the role of international logistics on the global economy and international trade,
- systematically analyze the international logistics situations,
- suggest the managerial solution and sustainable policy.

Course contents

This course, International Logistics and Supply Chain Management, focuses on the current development of the international logistics, especially in Europe. The essential contents of the course cover the fundamental knowledge of international logistics and global supply chain development, including the infrastructure improvement, international trade facilitations and the role of globalization.

Recommended reading

- Gibson, B., Hanna, J., Defee, C., Chen, H. (2014). The Definitive Guide to Integrated Supply Chain Management: Optimize the interaction between supply chain processes, Tools, and Technologies. Council of Supply Chain Management Professional. Pearson educational limited: New Jersey.
- Christopher, M. (2011). Logistics and Supply Chain Management: Creating Value-Adding Network. 4 eds. Person education limited: London.
- Rogaczewski, R. (2013). International logistics under conditions of business activity internationalization and integration. Working Paper No10/2013. Poznan University of Economics: Poznan.

Teaching and learning methods

The text book theory will be applied to real life situations and there will be lectures, discussions, presentations and analysis of various case studies.

Assessments methods

Preparing of a project, its presentations and a written exam.